Description

Introducing the Copper Tray from Mediterranean-art, a masterpiece of craftsmanship and tradition. These trays are meticulously handcrafted to provide absolute stability, ensuring a reliable foundation for various uses. The polished exterior enhances their visual appeal, offering a smooth and lustrous finish.

What sets these Copper Trays apart is their special quality of construction. Every tray is a testament to the artisan's commitment to producing high-quality, authentic Greek products. The attention to detail and dedication to traditional craftsmanship make each tray a unique piece of functional art.

Completely handmade, these Copper Trays showcase the rich heritage of Greek craftsmanship. Whether used for serving or as decorative items, they seamlessly blend functionality with artistic expression. The warmth of copper adds a touch of elegance to any setting, making these trays versatile and timeless.
